

Initial Meeting Notes (Video)

Brian Lee – Creative Director

Kathrine Han - Designer

11/2/22

i. Organization

- a. Confusion about wiki-hybrid nature
 - i. Clarified and settled on a navigation pane that follows the user in desktop mode that allows the user to jump to certain sections of the page.
- b. Top navigation system that breaks the site down into the large topics outlined in content outline.

ii. Visual/Content

- c. Settled on Bogu as the subject with Bushido and Kendo supplementing the dearth of info available on the Wikipedia page for bogu.
- d. Two potential color palettes
 - i. Navy and dark shades
 - ii. Red, White, and Black (classic bushido color set)
- e. Confusion about historical but not old.
 - iii. Clarified about the meaning (not using images and keeping things clean and modern but not too sleek as the subject matter needs to impart an air of history.)
- f. The home page will be simple with a larger banner image with only the bare basics about bogu.
 - iv. Features someone doing kendo as the main banner image
- g. Components page
 - v. Use large central images depicting each of the parts of bogu
 - 1. Toggleable text that falls under them reveals what they are and their function.
 - a. Potentially animated out.
- h. Going to Frankenstein info from related wiki pages in order to create enough content to fill out the pages.
